4. Choose the right verb.

When I organise a party, I always INVITES/ INVITE a lot of people. I HAVE GOT / HAS GOT many friends and some of them COMES/ COME with their brothers or sisters. Linda's brother, for example, is mad about GOES/ GOING to parties. He always COMING/COMES with a big present for me. When all my friends are here, we PLAYS/ PLAY a mimic game and then we enjoy HAVE/HAVING karaoke competitions. James

DOESN'T LIKE/ DON'T LIKE playing those games because he ISN'T SINGING / CAN'T SING very well. It's my birthday party today and James PLAYS / IS PLAYING the music. We are all singing and dancing.

5. Complete the dialogue with an appropriate bubble. Be careful! There's an extra bubble.

	Would you like some fruit
An	what do you like eating? Don't you like meat sandwiches?
1	would you like one? Would you like some sandwiches?
Carol: John: Carol:	Hi, are you Victoria's friend? Yes, we are classmates.
John: Carol:	Yes, your party is great!
John:	No, thanks.
Carol:	Come on, have one?
John:	No, I don't like them. I'm a vegetarian.
Carol:	Really? So it means that you don't eat any meat or dairy products.
John: Carol:	Well, I don't have any meat, but I do eat dairy products. I love cheese and yoghurt.
John:	like all kinds of vegetables, eggs, fruit
Carol:	Great, you have a healthy diet then. Oh, look, here's a cheese sandwich
John:	Oh, yes, I love cheese sandwiches. Thanks a lot.
