A day in the life of Freddy Stunton

Freddy is a telemarketer from Boston. He's twenty-four. He doesn't have a very interesting life. He works at an office every day except Saturdays and Sundays.

On weekdays, Freddy gets up at seven o'clock. He has a shower and then he has breakfast. He usually has corn flakes, toast and jam. He goes to work at eight. He usually goes by bus, but when the sun is shining he walks. He is at the office at half past eight and there he types letters and answers the phone.

The lunch break is from quarter to one to two o'clock. Freddy always has a hamburger for lunch. After lunch he goes back to the office until five thirty. Then he goes home.

When he gets home, he watches television. Then he has dinner at eight. After dinner he listens to music or reads a book. He goes to bed at eleven o'clock.
